

Charlotte District E-Pistle

We are grateful to Dr. David Carl for his therapeutic and practical presentation at our Charlotte District Clergy Fellowship session on this Tuesday. Our colleague acknowledged that most clergy are faced with not only the anxiety of members who have lost jobs and/or income during these volatile times, but are also dealing with personal losses in income or savings. We all are asking, “How can I be a wise, prudent and generous steward of that which has been entrusted to us?” After David responded positively and enthusiastically to our invitation to speak this week, he followed with a contact with Dr. Nancy Long on the faculty of Candler School of Theology. Upon David’s invitation, Dr. Long will present, without cost to the participant, a seminar for clergy on Saturday, September 26th, 9 a.m.-2 p.m., at St. Stephen UMC’s Youth Ministry Center, entitled “What to do in a Financially Turbulent Times.”

Dr. Long is an engaging presenter who has been trained through the services of the World Financial Group. Carolinas Medical Center’s Department of Pastoral Care and Education is co-sponsor of this event in partnership with the Charlotte District Office.

Of course we shall need at least 20 clergy participants in order to justify the expense of bring Dr. Long here from Atlanta; so, we shall need your registration. Contact my office if you have questions. Register now for the seminar by calling us at 704-525-3390 or emailing to charlottedistofc@wnccumc.org or responding to this message (Charlotteds@wnccumc.org).

Grace and peace,

George
